

Lot 5 / Play Area (Below):

The squares and circles are a combination of groundwater monitoring wells and treatment wells. Though they each come to the surface, there are no connecting (horizontal) underground piping.

Lot 6 / Skate Park (Above):

The squares and circles represent the underwater sparge system, a system of wells that that are connected via underground piping. The triangles depict pipes which extend to the surface and are capped. The circles depict pipes that remain underground.